

I did this genealogical study because I have been researching on the Wormwoods of Maine. As the generations moved across the country, I found, they sometimes met up with the Wormwoods of New York. This study is a tool to help me differentiate between the two families. Please use this study as a "lead source". I did not study wills, land grants etc or any other document that would help to prove family ties. I used sources available on line, some are reliable, like transcriptions of church records, censuses and Revolutionary pension rolls, and many are not reliable. I tried to mention where I found information. Please re-check sources.

Descendants of Wilhelm Wormuth

The name Wormuth is of German background. It has and is spelled many ways: Warmuth, Wermuth, Wormuth, Warmouth, Wermouth, Wermut, Wermudt, Wormoodt, Warmwood, and Wormwood, are some of the variations. Up until the early 1800's it is mostly spelled "Wormwood." This is most likely due to the fact that English speaking people were doing the recording. In fact, John Wormouth, in a deposition given for his mother Hannah's application for widow's Revolutionary War benefits, states; "the name of Warmouth was as often applied to his father as that of Wormwood, that he was known by the former among the Germans and among the English by the other, that his brothers, some of which were brought up among Germans write the name Wormuth and the other thought in English write their names Wormwood." By the mid-1800's, the many descendants of Wilhelm Wormuth, had adopted many different ways to spell the family name, and they carry their own special variation today.

Generation No. 1

1. WILHELM¹ WORMUTH was born about 1696, and died Aft. 1756 in Palatine, NY. He married ANNA MARGRETHA Abt. 1716 in Palatine, NY. She was born Abt. 1694 in Germany?, and died Aft. 1756 in Palatine, NY.

It is not known when Wilhelm Wormuth (aka William Wormwood) came to Montgomery County or from where. The FamilySearch website (IGI) has William as being baptized in Albany in the the late 1690's, and as the son of Matthys and Susanna (?) Wormuth. There does not appear to be any evidence as to who William's parents were. It is highly likely William came to Montgomery County from Germany during the Palatine Emigration of the late 1710's. His name appears in a document dated 5 November 1731, as a Palatine resident who had lost live stock to the Canajoharie Indians. He and his wife, Anna Margretha are some of the earliest members of the Church at Stone Arabia. There is no death date for his couple, but they sponsored 2 of their grandchildren's baptisms in 1754 and 1756.

It is possible the names of Wilhelm and Anna Margretha's children is not complete, or even incorrect. In some places, "Susanna" is listed as a daughter, and as the Susanna who married Alexander Dunbar, but it is a granddaughter. In many chronicles of Henry Wormwood, it is told that he had a daughter Susanna, who was a mistress of Sir William Johnson's, and that it was she who married Alexander Dunbar. Also all three of William and Anna Margretha's sons had a son named Mathias/Matthew. The name had to have had some meaning to these men, perhaps a brother who died at a young age. The births/baptisms of these children may be in Stone Arabia records.

Children of WILHELM WORMUTH and ANNA MARGRETHA are:

2. i. PETER W.² WORMUTH, b. Jan 1718, Palatine, NY; d. 1800, Palatine, NY.
3. ii. JOHN (JOHANNES) WORMUTH, b. 1720, Palatine, NY; d. Aft. 1790, Palatine, NY.
- iii. ELISABETH "LISA" MARGARET WORMUTH, b. 1723, Palatine, NY; m. JOHN COULON, 1743, Stone Arabia, NY. There is a marriage on record in Palatine of a "Lisa Margaret Warmuth" marrying Johan Collung in 1743.
4. iv. JOSEPH WORMUTH, b. 1725, Palatine, NY; d. Bef. 1790, German Flats, NY.
5. v. HENRY (HEINRICH JOHAN) WORMUTH, b. 1727, Palatine, NY.

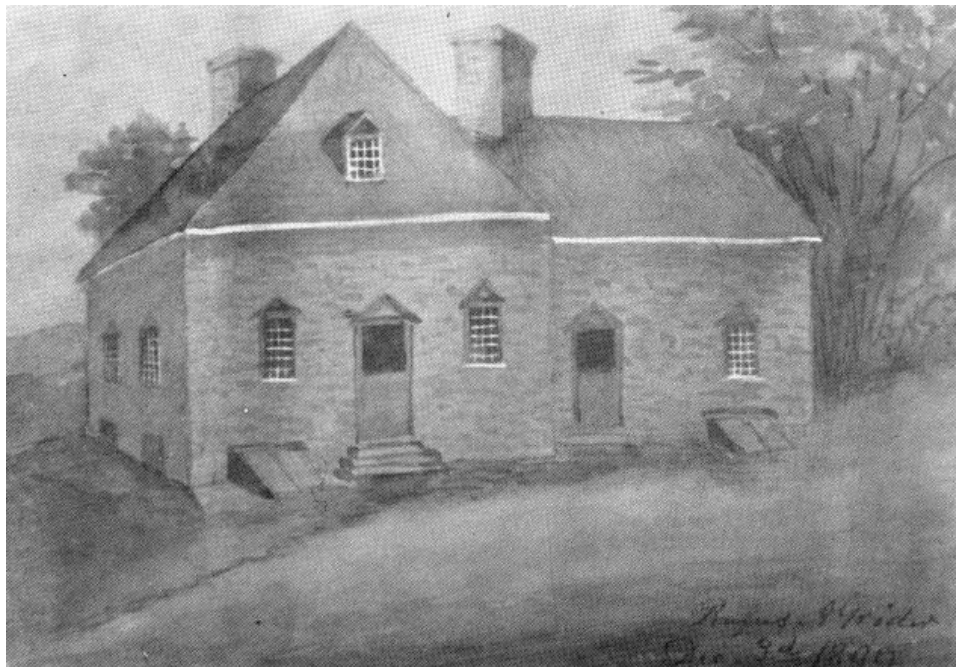

Generation No. 2

2. PETER W.² WORMUTH (*WILHELM*¹) was born Jan 1718 in Palatine, NY, and died 1800 in Palatine, NY. He married ANNA FAILING Abt. 1740 in Stone Arabia, NY, daughter of HEINRICH FAILING and ANNA KUNIGUNDA. She was born 1722 in Palatine, NY, and died 06 Oct 1797 in Palatine, NY.

Peter W. Wormuth (or Wormwood) was a wealthy farmer. He lived in Palatine, Montgomery County New York, near the towns of Canajoharie and St. Johnsville. In a 1799 tax assessment, Peter is listed as having $7570 worth of real estate and $559 worth of personal property (<http://threerivershms.com/assessor1799.htm>). He was taxed $8.12. From the www.fort-plank.com "PITTER WARMUTH. On a Map of the DePeyster/Van Slyck Patent copied by S. L. Frey, Frey wrote the following statement concerning a tract of land located in Lot 8 of the DePeyster/Van Slyck Patent: The 100 acres marked as Nicholas Snell's, were granted by Jacobus Van Slyck, Adam Van Slyck & Harmanus Van Slyck to Pitter Warmuth, by Deed dated June 28, 1751. I saw the original Deed — See the suit of Adam Hees in Montg. Com: pleas Defending in 1825."

In the 1790 census he has 2 adult males, 2 males under 16 and 5 females. The young family living with Peter and Anna, is most likely a son-in-law and daughter and their children, as Peter's only son was killed in the Revolutionary War. Also listed in the census are 7 other free persons.

Several years ago a few local historians located the remains of Peter's house and describe its location as about 150 yards north of Nelliston. The house was destroyed in 1865. It is said that Washington stayed in this house. The Three Rivers website writes of the house: "Peter Wormuth was a Palatiner. There is no known date of the erection of the house but it is of the type of the earliest construction of the small stone houses built by the Palatines after they came into our Middle Mohawk Valley about 1722 and it probably dated from about 1725 or 1730. Other stone houses like Fort Ehle, Fort Frey and Fort Klock were all built close to the Kings Highway as was the Wormuth house. One reason the Wormuth house was finally destroyed was probably because of this location, as it was some distance from the Mohawk Turnpike, now Route 5, which was built on or before 1800. There seems to have been no road leading to it. The Wormuth house, probably built about 1730, was demolished about 1865. Douglas Ayres, Jr. and "Lovey" Nellis located the site several years ago and drove an iron pipe in the ground to mark its location. The location is only about 150 yards north of the northern limits of the village of Nelliston. According to Anita Smith, this site is over the hill below the Longhorn Trucking Company on Route 5."

In "The Frontiersmen of New York"; by Jephtha R. Simms, Albany, NY, pub 1883; Volume I, Page 390; "The Old Walrath Ferry, etc." it says: "At the raising of a barn on the Wormuth farm, the next above Wagners, and then owned by Peter Wormuth Fox, given by the former owner to the latter as his namesake, and now in possession of the Rueben Lipe family, Tom was there, and so was Hank Prime, the latter at a dance which followed the raising in the evening, while on a spree, cut off the wig of poor Tom with a jackknife, to his great mortification, as it required a long time for the hair to grow again, and he was daily subjected to a deal of commiseration on the ferry boat for his loss. The Wormuth house was a stone dwelling which, 25 years ago, was in ruins, and has now entirely disappeared. This place was the home of Lieut. Matthew Wormuth, who was killed near Cherry Valley by Indians under Brant. The Lieutenant was buried from this house."

From Judith Damewood's family GEDCOM site on Rootweb.com; "Delmar R. Lowell in his 'Historic Genealogy of the Lowells of America,' 1899, page 360, states that Margaret Cassity's mother before marriage was a Wormwood who 'was related to the historic Lieut. Wormwood, who was killed by Brandt's Indians, near Cherry Valley, N.Y., while bearing dispatches from that place to Fort Stanwix, now Rome 1777.' He states that Margaret's mother married 'Col. Cassity of Cassity Hollow, N.Y., a son of Capt. Thomas Cassity.' Numerous other sources list Col. Thomas Cassity as a son of Capt. James Cassity, who was a British officer during the French and Indian War, as described by Lowell, so I believe that Lowell has the wrong name for the Captain. In 1785 James Cassity, Thomas Cassity's father, purchased land in Montgomery County, New York. Records of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, German Flatts, Herkimer County, New York (Herkimer County was formed from Montgomery county in 1791) show a marriage between Thomas Kassidey and Anna P. Warmoeth on February 25, 1786. Various sources indicate that Warmoeth (Warmuth) was anglicized to become Wormwood.

An obituary for Nancy C. (Wormwood) Cassity, who died March 24, 1853, appeared in the Fredonia Censor for March 29, 1853: "In Sheridan at res of son in law John Gregg, relict of Col. Thomas Cassity of Oneida, in 91st yr. ...During Rev. she witnessed many of the most thrilling scenes of border warfare of NY. With her expired the last of her ancestral name, her only bro, Lt. Wormwood having been killed by Brandt's Indians while engaged in carrying dispatches to Am troops advancing to the relief of Ft. Stanwix, now Rome, in 1777..."

3. JOHN (JOHANNES)² WORMUTH (*WILHELM*¹) was born 1720 in Palatine, NY, and died Aft. 1790 in Palatine, NY. He married (1) ANNA ELIZABETH NELLIS 05 Jun 1748 in Palatine, NY, daughter of JOHANN NELLIS and ANNA DYCKERD. She was born 15 Aug 1723 in Palatine, NY, and died Abt. 1759 in Palatine, NY. He married (2) SOPHIA 13 Jan 1761 in Stone Arabia, NY. She was born Abt. 1725 in Palatine, NY. (Sophia was the widow of Heinrich Biller.....could be Hiller or Miller, as there are not Billers in the Palatine region)

from: www.fort-plank.com : "JOHANNES WARMWOOD. During the Revolutionary War he owned 150 acres of land in the Harmanus Van Slyck & Abraham DePeyster Patent (Gerrit Y. Lansing Papers 8:11)". and "JOHANNIS WARMOUTH. Map #12 drawn for the Commissioners of Forfeitures by New York Deputy Surveyor General Isaac Vrooman shows that at the time of the American Revolution, Johannis occupied a house in Woodland Lot 1 of the DePeyster Division of the Harmanus Van Slyck Patent (Surveyor General's Maps, #872)."

Anna Elizabeth Nellis' father was Johann Wilhelm "William" Nellis. He was a volunteer soldier in 1711 on an expedition to Canada against the French. For this service, he received a land grant in the Stone Arabia patent. In 1729, he assisted in the construction of a log church at Stone Arabia. On 31 May 1735, William was deeded land that remained in the family for 10 generations. On 28 December 1714 when Johann Wilhelm was 20, he married Anna Sabina Dyckert, born 1 January 1697/1698 in Langensebold, Germany, buried in Stone Arabia, Tryon Co., New York. He was naturalized at Albany, New York, on 31 January 1715/1716 with his brother. He was a patentee of the Stone Arabia Patent. William Nelles was listed as a freeholder at Canajoharie in 1763

In 1744 Johann William Nelles's family was listed by Pastor Sommer as consisting of Wilhelm, Andreas (Adolph), Anna Elisabetha, Johannes, Ludwig, Henrich, Maria, Anna Margaretha, and Elisabetha.

William mentioned in his will, his beloved wife, eldest and first born son Andreas, sons William, Johannes, Ludwig, and Henry; daughters Catherine wife of Christian Dagstater, Maria, wife of Adam Empie, Margaret, wife of Nicholas Snell; and grandchildren William Wormuth, Robert Nellis, Warner Nelles, and Maria Dagsteter the daughter of Adam Ecker who had died, and three grandsons Robert, Peter, and John, sons of his own son, Henry. William died 17 January 1778, age 84 years and 10 days according to Stone Arabia Church records. This information comes from Kathleen MacLaughlin of the Nellis Family Foundation. - iv. CHRISTIAN WORMUTH, b. 1756, Palatine, NY; d. 10 Jan 1830, Stark, NY.

It is not known who Christian's parents were. He is definitely the second generation, a grandson of William & Anna Margaretha Wormuth. We know from accounts of Lieut. Matthew Wormwood's death, that he was the only son of Peter, and we know from accounts of Sir Wm. Johnson that his neighbor, Henry Wormuth was the father of 2 sons, whose baptisms are recorded. That means that either Joseph & Catherine or Johannes & Anna Barbara were the parents of Christian. Both couples could have had a baby in 1757. There are not any strong clues in the names of Christian's children....John for his dad? (or Mary's dad)....Christina for his mother?....William for his brother???? More on Christian Wormuth at the end of this report.

From: Three Rivers; Hudson~Mohawk~Schoharie website

“History From America’s Most Famous Valleys: The Mohawk Dutch and the Palatines: Their background and their influence in the development of The United States of America”, by Milo Nellis, Chapter VII: SIR WILLIAM JOHNSON

"Near the mouth of Hauss creek and about half way from Summer House point to Fish House (they were four miles apart), dwelt before the Revolution the family of Henry Wormwood. He had three daughters and two sons. The oldest daughter, whose name is now forgotten, married and went to Schoharie; the other two, Susannah and Elizabeth, lived at home; Susannah, the oldest of the two, was a beautiful girl, of middling stature, charmingly formed, with a complexion fair as a water lily - contrasting with which she had a melting dark eye and raven hair. Elizabeth much resembled her sister but was not quite so fair. An Irishman named Robert or Alexander Dunbar, a good looking fellow, paid his addresses to Susannah, and soon after married her. The match, in some manner brought about by the Baronet, was an unhappy one, and they soon after parted. She, however, retained as her stock in trade a Dunbar. What became of Dunbar is unknown.

"Sir William was on very intimate terms with both the Wormwood girls but the most so with Susannah, after she became a grass widow - at which time she was about twenty years old. Those girls were often at the cottage on the point, and not unfrequently at the fish house. As the latter place was not furnished, when Sir William went down there, intending to stay overnight, he took down a bed from the point, which 'as the evening shades prevailed'; was made up on the floor. In passing Wormwood's dwelling, some half a mile distant from his boat at the nearest point, if he desired an agreeable companion for the night, he discharged his double barreled gun, and the two shots in quick succession was a signal that never failed to bring him a temporary housekeeper. Susannah was his favorite, and so pleased was she with his attentions that she often arrived on foot at the Fish House before he did, especially if he lingered to fish on the way."

6. MATTHEW³ WORMUTH (*PETER W.*², *WILHELM*¹) was born Aug 1744 in Palatine, NY, and died Nov 1778 in Cherry Valley, NY. He married GERTRUDE SHOEMAKER 04 Sep 1774 in Dutch Reformed Church, German Flats Twp, Herkimer, NY.

Lieut. Matthew Wormuth, with a companion named Sitts, had ridden from Fort Plain to Cherry Valley with the message that valley militia would come up next day to aid the Cherry Valley post, as Brant was known to be in the neighborhood. Wormuth and Sitts were riding back in the evening over the Fort Plain road in the glen, where Brant had deployed his war party in an ambush in the dense forest growth. The Indians fired on the horsemen, mortally wounding Wormuth and wounding and capturing Sitts. Wormuth was an officer in Col. Klock's Palatine regiment. Klock and some troops came up from Fort Plain the next day but all they could do was to take Wormuth's body back to Fort Plain and from there across the river to his father's home in the Palatine district. Lieut. Wormuth was a strapping and handsome young soldier, who was universally popular among the valley folks and there was general sorrow over his death. It was indeed a sad day in the Wormuth house, when the body of Peter Wormuth's only son was brought back to the doorstep of his home. One of the most stricken was the Lieutenant's young wife, Gertrude Herkimer. Brant drew off his Indians but returned with Walter Butler in November and perpetrated the Cherry valley massacre. This ambush occurred on Tuesday afternoon, June 2, 1778 as per Colonel Klock's dispatch to Governor Clinton, dated Friday, June 5, 1778. They were both of Captain William P. Fox's company, Colonel Klock's regiment. Captain Fox was a brother in law of Lieutenant Warmuth, having married his sister, Margaret Warmuth. Her sister, Nancy Warmuth, married Colonel Thomas Cassety (Cassidy), later of Oneida county. The family tradition, however is that the Colonel's wife was a daughter of the slain lieutenant. Whether he left any children is not know to us at present. But the tradition has been handed down that the colonel's wife was of Herkimer ancestry, and the daughter of Lieutenant Warmuth.

Child of MATTHEW WORMUTH and GERTRUDE SHOEMAKER is:

- i. GERTRUDE WORMUTH⁴ (WORMWOOD), b. Abt. 1776, Palatine, NY.

7. MATHIAS³ WORMUTH (*JOHN (JOHANNES)*², *WILHELM*¹) was born 23 Aug 1749 in Palatine, NY, and died 11 Dec 1836 in Johnstown, NY. He married SALOME Abt. 1780 in Palatine, NY. She was born Abt. 1760, and died Bef. 1811.

Mathias is not listed in his grandfather's will. He served in the Revolutionary War. In his pension application, he states he enlisted at Stone Arabia, NY on January 10, 1777 and served for a period of 1 1/2 years in Capt. Fincks and Hicks Companies. He mentions he was at the battle of Johnstown. In his application, he mentions a daughter Margaret Weaver and that he has "another child"...but no name

Children of MATHIAS WORMUTH and SALOME are:

- i. MARGRETA⁴ WORMUTH, b. 20 Oct 1782, Herkimer, NY; m. FREDERICK WEAVER; b. 24 Feb 773, New York.
- ii. CHILD WORMUTH, b. Abt. 1785, Herkimer, NY.

8. WILLHELM (WILLIAM)³ WORMUTH (*JOHN (JOHANNES)*², *WILHELM*¹) was born Abt. 1751 in Palatine, NY, and died Bef. 1790 in Palatine, NY. He married REGINA SPRAKER Abt. 1768 in Stone Arabia, NY, daughter of CONRAD SPRAKER and PHILIPINA. She was born 02 Apr 1752 in Stone Arabia, NY.

Note: Another genealogist has the William that married Regina Spraker as the son of Joseph & Catherine (Weis) Wormuth. Both Williams were born in 1751.

Children of WILLHELM WORMUTH and REGINA SPRAKER are:

13. i. CONRAD⁴ WORMUTH, b. 1770, Palatine, NY; d. Aft. 1860.
- ii. CHRISTIAN WORMUTH, b. Abt. 1775, Palatine, NY.

9. PETER³ WORMUTH (JOHN (JOHANNES)², WILHELM¹) was born 24 Nov 1761 in Stone Arabia, NY, and died 23 Jul 1836 in Johnstown, NY. He married SARAH PUTNAM 19 Apr 1786 in Stone Arabia, NY. She was born 1758 in New York, and died Aft. 1843 in Glen, NY.

Peter enlisted in Stone Arabia on March 5, 1782. In his application for a pension he says; "Peter Wormwood of the town of Johnstown, Fulton County, New York served in the Revolutionary War as a private soldier in Capt. Moddy's Company, Col. Lamb's Regiment of New York Artillery. He enlisted about the month of March in the year 1782 as a three years man, and that he served faithfully to the end of said term of three years and was discharged at Fort Plain in the State of New York." In the application he mentions he is the brother of Mathias Wormwood, who was living in Montgomery Co in 1820. In one application he calls his wife "Mary"....and in another form he calls her "Sarah". Sarah (Putnam) Wormwood filed for a widow's pension, and in 1843 stated she lived in Glen, NY

Child of PETER WORMUTH and SARAH PUTNAM is:

- i. EVA⁴ WORMUTH, b. 1803, Johnstown, NY.

10. JOHANNES (JOHN WORMWOOD)³ WORMUTH (JOSEPH², WILHELM¹) was born 28 Jun 1761 in Palatine, NY, and died 17 Feb 1832 in Verona, NY. He married CATHERINE Oct 1785 in New York. She was born 1762 in CT, and died 15 Aug 1857 in Manlius, NY.

Fought in the Revolutionary War. In 1844 John's widow, Catherine applied for a widow's pension from the US Government. The application is some 12 pages long. The pages 3 & 4 are basically birth and marriage documents relating to John & Catherine's son John, Jr's family. The fifth page says: Catherine Wormwood, widow of Jno. Wormwood who served in the Revolutionary War was a Private inscribed on the Roll at the rate of 28 dollars 33 cents per Annum to commence as the 4th day of March 1848.

The Declaration basically says that on the 17th day of May 1844, Catherine Wormwood, resident of Manlius, NY appeared before the court. She was 77 years old at the time. She stated she married John Wormwood in October of 1785, and that he passed away on February 18, 1832. Also present on that day was her son, Peter, age 44, and the fifth child of his parents, granddaughter, Ann M. Goodall (b 1811), and son John Jr. sent a statement. Catherine's application was accepted.

Children of JOHANNES WORMUTH and CATHERINE are:

- i. CATHERINE⁴ WORMWOOD, b. Abt. 1788, Cherry Valley, NY;

This Catherine is most likely the "Katherine Wormwood" who married Elisha Olds. The family of Elisha and Katherine lived in Pompey, which is right next door to Manlius, NY. According to the census records several children were born into this family. Daughter Amy Olds married into the Stebbins family. Also there is a guardianship record on file in Onondaga County for the children of John and Anna (?) Caldwell. Elisha Olds, of Onondaga county became the gardian for John (1808) and Maria (1811).

To Celebrate Her 100th Birthday: Miss Betsey Wormood of Sconondoa, the oldest person in this section of the country, is to celebrate her 100th birthday on Monday, Feb. 23. She will be pleased to see her many friends on that day. [Oneida Union]

Miss Wormood is a sister of Peter Wormood of this village. She is as spry and active as most ladies of 50 and is the oldest person in this section of the state. [unknown Manlius, Onondaga Co, NY newspaper]

More Than 100 Years Old: Betsey Wormwood [note: the spelling of the surname changes in this article], who recently celebrated her one hundredth birthday at her home near Oneida, is a little woman, about four feet, ten inches tall, and weighs about eighty pounds. She is somewhat deaf, but her form is erect and she walks with a firm step and is in excellent health. About fifty people called, attracted by the extreme old age of Miss Wormood, including Mr. and Mrs. E.H. Wormood, of Meridian, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. O.H. Wormood and family of Syracuse, N.Y., making four generations. All were surprised at the sprightliness of the old lady. Her memory is good, easily recalling incidents of the past century, the death of Washington, the election of Thomas Jefferson, the several wars that have followed, and can relate numerous things that have occurred in the career of public men since. She gave her autograph to several persons. Miss Wormood gives promise of living to enjoy still other birthday anniversaries. [Rome Sentinel, NY]

Reply to a letter of inquiry dated April 3, 1939

Reference is made to your letter in which you request information in regard to the husband of Hannah Rawleigh; she received a pension from the United States and died in 1853, but you do not know the name of her husband.

The data which follow are found in the papers on file in pension claim, W.24797, based upon service of John Wormwood or Warmouth in the Revolutionary War; his widow, Hannah, was doubtless the pensioner to whom you refer.

John Wormwood or Warmouth enlisted August 23, 1776, and served as private in Captain Christian Getman's company of rangers in the New York troops until March 27, 1777; he served as private in the Battle of Oriskany and was present when Captain Andrew Dillenback was killed, also, rendered boat service under Captains Samuel Gray and John Lefler. During the years 1778, 1780, 1781 and 1782, he served at various times, amounting in all to nearly one year, as a private in the New York troops under Captain John Bedhig, Rudolph Kock, Thomas Skinner and Peter B. Tearse, and Colonels Jacob Klock, Peter Waggoner and Marinus Willett.

The soldier married April 9, 1787, Hannah Kane. Their names were borne on the records of the Reformed Dutch Church of Stone Arabia, town of Palatine.—Johannes Warmuth and Johanna Kahn.

John Warmouth (Wormwood) died December 17, 1799. Sometime later, his widow, Hannah, married Thomas Rawley or Rawleigh, who died March 25, 1814. The date and place of birth of said Thomas are not shown, nor the date and place of their marriage.

Hannah Rawley (as her name was borne on the pension rolls) was allowed pension on account of service of her former husband, John Warmouth, in the Revolutionary War on her application executed August 28, 1843, at which time she resided in Cobleskill, Schoharie County, New York. She was aged then seventy-five years; the date and place of her birth and the names of her parents were not given. It was not stated that Thomas Rawley rendered service in the Revolutionary War. In 1848, said Hannah resided in Deerfield, Oneida County, New York.

In 1844, Mary Empie, the daughter of the soldier, John Warmouth and his wife, Hannah, made affidavit in behalf of her mother in Fulton County, New York; her brother, John Warmouth (as he signed his name) was in Fulton County, New York, at that time. Both of them referred to brothers and stated that the names Warmouth and Wormwood were interchangeable.

In 1844, Daniel Rawley, the son of Thomas Rawley and his wife, Hannah, was a resident of Cobleskill, New York. He signed his name Rawley. There are no further data in regard to any other children with the surname Rawley.

- iv. PETER WORMUTH, b. 12 Jul 1793, Stone Arabia, NY.

12. MATTHEW WORMUTH³ (WORMWOOD) (HENRY (HEINRICH JOHAN)² WORMUTH, WILHELM¹) was born 07 Dec 1760 in Stone Arabia, NY, and died Abt. 1825 in Niagara, Erie Co., NY. He married MARGARET WINTERMUTE 09 Mar 1795 in Niagara on the Falls, Canada, daughter of GEORGE WINTERMUTE and CATHRINA CORTWRIGHT. She was born 24 Aug 1777 in New Jersey, and died Abt. 1818 in Niagara, Erie Co., NY.

THEORY....NEED TO FIND PROOF!!!

The Argument: We know there were 3 second generation Matthew/Mathias, (and one 3rd generation Mathias). And we know one Mathew was killed in Cherry Valley in 1778. And we know there are 3 Mathew/Mathias in the NY censuses. Two in the Montgomery County area, and on in the Buffalo, NY area.

We know there was a Mathew Wormwood who fought with Butler's Rangers, and that he relocated to Niagara Canada after the Revolutionary War, which is where most of the Loyalists relocated. We know this because, Mathew Wormwood married Margaret Wintermute on 9 March 1795 in Niagara on the Falls, CAN. (She was the daughter of George & Cathrina (Cortwright) Wintermute, and was b. 24 Aug 1777. George was a Loyalist. He came from NJ with his family about 1780 to Canada.) Mathew, along with his father-in-law, tried to claim their Canadian land that was promised to them as Loyalists. The claim was denied.

It appears he moved back to the United States, per census records, settling in Niagara, NY, which is where he remained for the rest of his life. In the 1810 census, Mathew & Margaret are living next door to her parents, in Buffalo, NY.

As for who Mathew's parents were: We know many of Butler's rangers were men from the Palatine region of New York, and we know that Sir William Johnson was an English supporter and a military leader of a troop of men from the Palatine NY area. We also know that 2 of Henry & Anna (Emie) Wormuth's daughters were mistresses of Sir William Johnson. It goes to reason, that Henry's son Mathew, was also a friend of Sir William Johnsons, and therefore may have been recruited to fight for the Loyalists.

Wormwood Loyalists to the Crown are recorded as:

William Wormwood.....soldier R.R.N.Y

John Wormwood....Collins...P. Butler's Rangers...#89 Ex'd granted

Mathew Wormwood...H home district, solder Butler's Rangers, R. Clinch's certificate, S.P.L.N. 1786; Niagara stamp book.

In the 1810 census, Mathew indicates he is older than 45 years, making his birth date before 1765 (He is enumerated on page #237). According to the censuses, Mathew was the father of 4 boys and 2 girls, born between 1795 and 1810. It appears, his wife Margaret died by 1820, as she is not listed on the census.

Records of Mathew and Margaret's children's names have yet to be found. However, in an 1828 Buffalo City Directory (www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~nyerie/buffalo/dir1828.txt) There is a listing for 3 laborers; George, Benjamin and Henry Wormwood. These three men relocate together in the 1830's to Coral Township, Ohio, where they appear in the 1840 and 1850 censuses. It is highly likely these three men are brothers, and that they are the sons of Mathew and Margaret (Wintermute) Wormwood.

It should also be noted, Mathew kept the "Wormwood" spelling for his sir name. Probably, because he was friendly with the English. And Benjamin, Henry and George also consistently use the "Wormwood" spelling.

Children of MATTHEW (WORMWOOD) and MARGARET WINTERMUTE are:

- i. GEORGE⁴ WORMWOOD, b. 1796, Buffalo, NY; d. Abt. 1855, Coral Township, OH; m. (1) CYNTHIA CROSBY, Sep 1850, Coral Township, OH; b. Abt. 1820; d. Abt. 1851, Coral Township, OH; m. (2) CHRISTINA LONG, Aug 1851, Coral Township, OH; b. Abt. 1820.

20. PETER⁴ WORMWOOD (JOHANNES (JOHN WORMWOOD)³ WORMUTH, JOSEPH², WILHELM¹) was born 07 Mar 1800 in Cherry Valley, NY, and died Jul 1894 in Manlius, NY. He married ELFLEDA JANES Apr 1826, daughter of ALMARIN JANES and POLLY FAY. She was born 25 Oct 1804 in CT, and died 12 Feb 1875 in Manlius, NY.

Child of John Wormood (Wormwood) and Catharine (unk). Spouse of Alphleda Janes and Julia E Tuthill (Tuttle?). In 2000, during the paving of a parking lot at the new Manlius Historical Society, they unearthed a 1400 lb blue limestone stepping stone - the kind use by blacksmiths to ferry customers out of their carriages for horseshoe or wagon repairs. After a bit of research, they found they had built on the land of Peter, a blacksmith & at one time co-owner of the largest carriage building factory in central NY, who had owned the property for over 60 years.

(Peter Wormwood 1800-1894)

Week of 15 Jul 1894: BEYOND THE PORTALS. The oldest and one of the most respected residents of this village, Mr Peter Wormood, died at his residence on Pleasant Street on Thursday morning last at half past twelve. Mr Wormood was born in Cherry Valley, Otsego county, March 7, 1800 and came to this place with his parents in 1807, where he has lived ever since. At the age of 17 years he was apprenticed in a blacksmith shop until he became 21 years of age. He afterwards worked in the machine shop of May's cotton factory and until 1865 conducted a blacksmith shop on the site of the village lockup. He built the house in which he lived over sixty years and where he died. The firm of Duell, Hopkins and Wormood, some fifty years ago, was the largest wagon factory in this part of the state. Mr Wormood's father was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and his uncle was shot at the massacre at

Cherry Valley. On April 26, 1826, he married Alphleda Janes, who died Feb 12, 1875. By this union, he had eight children, four of whom are now living. They are: Mrs Campbell of Springfield, NY, William Wormood of Dubuque, IA, Norman Wormood of Lake Geneva, WI, and Mrs. M.B. Snook of Fayetteville. On June 28, 1876, Mr. Wormood married Julia E. Tuthill, at that time a resident of Homer, NY, who survives him. Mr Wormood united with the Methodist church in 1831 and up to the time he received a stroke of paralysis about three years ago was an active member. Mr Wormood was a very conscientious man, quiet and unostentatious, and commanded the respect and confidence of those with whom he came in contact. He was one of the kindest of husbands and fathers, ever obliging and indulgent. The funeral service was held at the family residence on Saturday afternoon and largely attended. From: THE LEADING CITIZENS OF MADISON COUNTY, 1894

WILLIAM WERMUTH, an industrious and thrifty farmer of the town of Fenner, Madison County, N.Y., was born in this county, September 21, 1842, son of William C. and Libbie (Myers) Wermuth. The father owned a farm in the town of Lenox, which consisted of about one hundred and seventy-six acres, on which he raised grain. He sold this place in 1853, and bought the one on which he died, and which our subject now owns and resides on. He died at the age of seventy-two years, and his wife some time after, in her eighty-eighth year. They had eight children, of whom five are now living: Ebenezer, Alexander, and Hamilton, residing in California; Nelson, in the village of Eaton, N.Y.; and William. The three who died were: Moses, at the age of forty-two years; Jeremiah, at the age of twenty-two, during the late war, in Salisbury prison; and Julia, wife of C. M. Warner, aged twenty-eight years.

The subject of this sketch was brought up in Madison County, and started out soon in life to work out by the month, doing this for nearly twenty years. Frugal and thrifty, he saved his money, and in 1873 was able to buy the old home farm, where he resides to the present time. He keeps his farm and all things pertaining thereto--his buildings, his cattle and horses and tools-in fine condition. He owns sixty-five acres of land, and makes a specialty of a high grade of live stock. In his religious views he is a Methodist, and is a constant attendant at the church in his town. Socially, he is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, belonging to the lodge in Cazenovia. He is a good, honest Republican, and, while not receiving any preferment from the party, is faithful to the principles it teaches, always voting a straight ticket. For reasons best known to himself, and which the writer, equally with the public, has no call to inquire into, Mr. Wermuth remains a bachelor. He is not unsocial, is by no means a misanthrope; and his home is the abode of comfort and plenty. Among friends, neighbors, and fellow-citizens generally he is accorded the high consideration and regard he so deserves as a sound-minded man, not over-hasty in judgment, one who may be relied on to be as good as his word.

Mr. Wormuth held the office of Assessor for one term, and was often solicited to accept of that and other offices of trust in his town, but he always declined, preferring the quietude of his family and many friends to the disturbances of an official life. Week of 20 Aug 1916: VETERAN JEWELER IN ETERNAL SLEEP Funeral of W.W. Wormood held in Dubuque Wednesday Morning BURIAL IN LINWOOD CEMETERY In business in Dubuque More than Half Century-Died at Springfield, Ill Sunday. The funeral of the late William W. Wormood, a pioneer Dubuque jeweler who passed away Sunday night at the home of his son, A.S. Wormood, Springfield, Ill., was held Wednesday morning at 11:00 o'clock from Walton's Chapel. Rev. B.B. Braden of the Baptist Church officiated at the services. Burial was in Linwood Cemetery. On August 26, 1831, W.W. Wormood was born at Manilus, Onondaga county, New York where his father was a blacksmith. Mr. Wormood worked at this trade for a while but found it too strenuous and turned to engraving, learning the trade in a Rochester NY jewelry store. Later he worked at it in several eastern cities and in 1857 came to Dubuque where he opened a shop on Main Street which he conducted for a quarter of a century. He then removed his establishment to a location on Eighth Street but returned later to 551 Main Street where he was in business until several years ago when he disposed of his interests to A.R. Staufenbeil. Mr. Wormood was a master engraver and one of his prized possessions was a gold dollar of 1852 on which he had engraved the Lord's Prayer. The dollar is smaller than a silver dime but the prayer can be easily read with the naked eye. He was also a crack rifle shot in his day and in a match at Ft Dodge, IA, a quarter a century ago he killed 73 out of 75 live pigeons on the wing. Besides his son, A.S., Mr. Wormood leaves a daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Dumble of Buffalo, NY. He also leaves a sister residing at Syracuse, NY. Mrs. Wormood's death occurred in 1868.
