INTRODUCTION.

The second volume of the records of the Dutch Reformed Saint John's Church in the town of St. Johnsville, contains about 475 pages, not all of which have writing upon them. The volume is bound in full calf, is of excellent paper and is in fine state of preservation. Although a few pages are missing from the book, there is every reason to believe that the record is complete. This transcript contains all of the second volume of the Church Record, with the exception of the Minutes of the Consistory, and original pages 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 481 and 482. Aside from the Minutes of the Consistory, the items which have not been transcribed are of little or no consequence, as can be seen from the notes on pages 188 and 196.

The two books which have been transcribed in these two volumes, as also the Treasurer's Account book, and a book of Trustees' Minutes from 1873 to 1880, were received by the Society, on Feb. 24, 1914, from the Rev. Frederick Perkins, the Pastor of the Church. All four of these books of record, were returned to him, in the month of June 1914.

In the first years of My Labours in the Congregation at Snells Bush I recorded the Baptisms of the Children of that Church in this Record, but at last a resolution was made by the Consistory to buy a Book of Records, and Jacob Markle was apointed to purchase said Book, but was neglected by him. During the time from that Resolution I kept a minute on loose paper hoping that when the Book was had I would writ it in that Book, but could not, have now written them in this Record and may be found in and between Baptisms of 1826, & 1827 almost in the Middle of this Book.

Note. Entry No. 3. The Rev. David Devoe was a poor speller; also an indifferent writer. It is hard to distinguish between his "e" and "c", and in many cases the two letters are identical. In the entry in question, Montgomery is written "Montomery"; but as it is obviously a slip of the pen, I have made the correction.

Note. Some of the pages of the record are too long to transcribe on a single page of the copy. The remainder of such pages have the letter "b" before the page number of the copy, which explains the absence of headings on the page and indicates that the part transcribed on this page, is to complete an original page. The page numbers, as they were numbered in the original record, are the last figures appearing on these copied pages. The page just finished above is page 197 in the original record.

Note. Page 382 of the original record has no writing upon it. A leaf, consisting of pages 383 and 384, has been torn out of the record. It is my opinion however, that none of the marriage record is missing. The Rev. Mr. Lodewick was a slovenly record keeper; and if he tore this page out, he probably did not know any better, and was too careless to notice that the pages were numbered. This same trick has been done to a page in the Minutes of the Consistory, between Dec. 16, 1872 and Dec. 27, 1872, when Lodewick was keeping the record. I attribute both these cases to the same fault -- ignorance.

Note. It will be observed that the record of two marriages on the preceding page, and three on this page, are marked thus §§. In each case, Mr. Lodewick has written in the spot indicated, a word which I do not understand. In Mr. Lodewick's best handwriting the word clearly appears to be "Surme".
