Note. Errors in this record caused by the inability of the recorders to keep the year dates straight, will not be noticed in the notes. Obvious errors will be underscored by the editor: viz. "Apr. 17 1817". I have come to the conclusion that it is a waste of time to analyze errors that bring the date of a child's baptism before its birth.

Mr. Devoe is a most flagrant error maker, as to year dates; I have noted about 20 errors of this description, to say nothing of spelling errors caused by leaving out or transposing letters. The fact that he was able to leave his spelling of the word "Sponsors" as he first wrote it, without noticing anything wrong with it, is not calculated to inspire confidence as to the accuracy of his record. The most glaring and obvious of his errors, can be easily detected. But the question arises at once, as to how many errors in dates of birth and names of children, has he made that cannot be readily detected? In the year 1806 Mr. Devoe was deficient in his preparatory studies for the Ministry. He was licensed by the Classis of Albany, prior to 1808; but was not ordained until the year 1812. These facts are mentioned here to show that he was not well educated, and had difficulty to comply with the scholarly requirements, before attaining the Ministry.

Note. If Mr. Devoe had written at the top of each page of his record:
"Remember that you cannot baptize a child until after its birth!!", it is more than likely that he would have obtained better results, as to his dates.

Note. It is difficult to determine to just which entries, the information in the date column refers. In my opinion, the baptisms administered on May 7 and 10, were performed at Lowville. Thankful Gark was probably baptized at Le Ray. Jacob Wies was baptized on the same day at Penet; this refers to Penet Square, reserved by the Oneida Indians for Peter Penet in the treaty of 1788.

Note. Entry No. 14. One might suppose that the cryptic marks made by Mr. Devoe, indicate the death of Jonas Snell in 1822. However, from data secured for the introduction, I am sure that Jonas Snell was alive, at least 50 years later and possibly 60. Elizabeth Klock, his wife, did not die until March 12, 1889.

Note. In the original record, the dates of birth and of baptism and the name of the child, were written each in separate columns. They are arranged as above, because the page is not wide enough to do otherwise. The first date given is the date of birth; the second, the date of baptism.

Entry No. 8. The memorandum written beneath the name Peggy Klock, has been so much scratched out, that it can only be read with difficulty; it may not be transcribed correctly.

Joseph Grams Born May 18th 1835 Oct. 17th 1835	Joseph House Betsey Grams		Eukersbush

Note. Entry No. 8. The name transcribed as "Grams" may be "Granes". In a hurried examination, I can find nothing to compare it with, and I am now under the impression that the name comes from the "Gramps" family.
