A Pioneer Lady Dead.

At the annual reunion of the Sandusky County Pioneer and Historical Society held in this city on the 31st of August last, mention was made of the large mortality during the past year among the pioneers. The death roll for the comin yea bids fair to be an equally lengthy one. Since the pioneer meeding three weeks ago death has take from the rolls the names of several of the old settlers of this county.

At the recent pioneer meeding Mrs. Mary Ann Tucker was presented with a bouquet, in token of the fact that she was the oldest lady present at the meeting. She had on several occasions at previous reunions been the recipient of the same token of respect. Monday afternoon, Spetember 19, 1892, Mrs. Mary Ann Tucker died at the home of her son, Nelson R. Tucker, in Sandusky township, aged 91 years, 3 months and 19 days.

The deseased was born in Montgomery county, New York, May 31 1801. She was married there in 1821 to Nathaniel B. Tucker, and four years later with her husband moved to St. Lawrence county, N. Y., where she was again disciplined in enduring the hardships and privations, and braving the dangers only known to the early prioneers, and which she had gone through in her younger days. She often related thrilling stories of encounters with wild animals. Her grandfather, Thomas Ballard, was a revolutionaly soldier, and many of her long winter evenings were spent in the listening to his stories of the war.

In 1939 they moved to Lower Sandusky (now Fremont), and ever afterward resided in this immediate vicinity. Mr. Tucker died in 1883, aged 85 years. Since that time Mrs. Tucker made her home with her son Nelson. She leaves numerous descendants. The funeral services were held from the residence Wednesday afternoon, and the interment was in Brier Hill cemetery, Rice town

Notes for JOHN GILBERT:

John Gilbert was born on September 14, 1815(*1) in Springford, Oxford County, Canada West and died on March 03, 1906(*2) on his farm at Lot 21 Concession 6 of North Norwich Township, Oxford County, Ontario. He married Purthena Swartout on January 24, 1844(*3) in North Norwich Township, Oxford County, Canada West. John and Purthena Gilbert are buried in the Springford Cemetery, Norwich Township, Oxford County Ontario.

Primary Proof: . From the Norwich Gazette Newspaper obituary Friday March 10, 1906.

The death occurred on Friday March 3, 1906 of John Gilbert, one of the oldest and best known of the farmers of North Norwich Township his home on the 6th concession. Mr. Gilbert was a son of Josiah Gilbert, a United Empire Loyalist, who served seven years in the American Revolution. When the war was over, not being able to reconcile himself to living under other than British rule, he came to Canada. In the year 1808, he came to Oxford County, where he took up land and now known later as the Anstice Farm at Springford, and it was there that John Gilbert was born nearly 90 years ago. Mr. Gilbert attended school in the first schoolhouse built in the settlement, which was situated on the 7th concession of South Norwich. The building was very primitive and in reviewing his past experiences, Mr. Gilbert sometimes described it. It was built of logs and, as glass was an almost unknown luxury in the sparsely settled districts of Ontario at the time, sheets of glazed paper were utilized for windows. Mr. Gilbert served in the rebellion of 1837/38 and had in his possession a musket he carried at the time.
