

In Walter Bruce Walrod's 1942 work titled "One Branch of the Walrod Family Tree Dating Back to the Year 1710", he ended his work with the following:

UNIDENTIFIED WALRODS

We have been unable to trace relationship to any of the following Walrods. Correspondence is invited and any help in identifying them would be highly appreciated;

Fred O. Walrod, a veterinary surgeon, now living at Carnarvon, Iowa, Geo. Walrod, a veterinary surgeon of storm Lake, Iowa, Will Walrod, Al and Ernest Walrod, farmers, who lived near Sac City, Ia. Jonas Walrod, C. O. Walrod, a veterinary surgeon, now living at Northside, Saskatchewan. The above are all related.

C. O., now 53 years of age, is son of Fred O. Fred O., George and Will were brothers. Al and Ernest were brothers, and cousins of Fred O., George and Will. Jonas was father of Fred O., George and Will.

The Silas Eugene Walrod family, now living at Fullerton, Nebraska, are also related to the above, but more distantly. Then there are two ladies, a Mrs. Minett and a Mrs. Whitke, now living in Clear Lake, Iowa, whose father was J. G. Walrod, formerly of Minneapolis or Milwaukee.

I have tried to document the unidentified persons named above, their ancestors and their descendants. It must be noted that, except that they have the surname WALROD, I am unable to connect them to Walter Bruce Walrod's line. In fact, like the WALRODS in Walter's work, WALROD was a variation of Walradt.

I make no representations as to the accuracy of the following documents as they have been obtained from a variety of sources, mainly other researchers. I have tried to include the documentation received from them as well as their names.

Jerry.....I have found some info. on Peter and Hannah that was sent to me by Donna Grothaus. She references communication with Richard Walrod. I thought I had a copy of her email message on my computer but all I can find is a printout. When I get time I will send you the lineage she sent me. I also have some other info. that you might already have on his father.

According to this info:

Peter A. Walradt was born 17 May 1781. His parents were Adolph J. Walrath and Catherine Helmer Bowman (widow of Capt. Peter Bowman).

I have this Adolph J. as the son of Johannes and Amelia Sutz Walrad/Walrod.

Peter died 1863 in Wyoming Co., NY at the age of 82. He married Hannah Hoover before 1815. Hannah was born in NY 15 Feb. 1794 or 96. The 1860 Census would place her birth year at 1794.

Hannah died 1872 at 77 years of age.

The family resided in Gainesville, Wyoming Co., NY 1860 (Peter A. Walradt, 1860 Census, sheet 270, dwelling 190, family 187, Micropublication M653, Reel 883 or 884, Nat'l Archives).

The info. shows 11 children but only 3 in the 1860 Census.

George M. Walrod DVS

1909 Past and Present of Buena Vista County, Iowa

In a history of the professional interests in Buena Vista county mention should be made of Dr. George M. Walrod, who for fifteen years has practiced at Storm Lake and during this period has given evidence of his ability in his chosen profession. He was born in De Kalb county, Illinois, in 1854, and is the eldest son of a family of seven children, whose parents were Jonas and Eliza (Eaton) Walrod, both of whom were natives of the state of New York. The father was of German lineage and devoted his life to the occupation of farming. When a young man he removed westward to Illinois and settled upon a farm in De Kalb county, where he resided until 1877, when he took up his abode on a farm in Sac county, Iowa. There he lived for some time but before his demise removed to Lake View, where his remaining days were passed in honorable retirement from labor. He had prospered as the years had gone by, and by his industry and careful expenditure had gained a handsome competence that enabled him to live retired in his later years.

He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and gave his political support to the republican party. He died in 1894, at the age of sixty-eight years, while his wife passed away in October, 1900, at the age of sixty-nine years. She had removed to Ohio in her girlhood days, but they were married in the state of New York.

Dr. Walrod was reared in the usual manner of farmer lads. He attended the country schools and alternated his time between the schoolroom and the fields for as his age and strength increased he assisted more and more largely in the work of the farm until his marriage. He was about thirty-one years of age when he withdrew from agricultural life and turned his attention to commercial pursuits, purchasing a drug store at Lake View, which he conducted for four years. It was a logical step from that business to the practice of veterinary surgery, and in preparation therefore he entered the Ontario College at Toronto, Canada, in 1892, and was graduated in 1894. The same year he opened an office in Storm Lake, where he has since engaged in the practice of his profession with good success. He here conducts a hospital supplied with all modern appliances, and his ability places him with the ablest representatives of the profession in Buena Vista county. He is a member of both the State and American Veterinary Associations.

In 1882 Dr. Walrod was married to Crilla Wilcox, who was born in the ~ state of New York in 1862. They are the parents of five children: Cora, wife of G. W. Foley, connected with railroad interests; Cuthbert; Perry; Eugene; and Frances. The parents are members of the Methodist Episcopal church, in the work of which they take an active and helpful interest. Dr. Walrod is now serving as a member of the board of stewards and is also active in the work of the Sunday school. In politics he is somewhat independent, supporting both the republican and prohibition parties as his judgment dictates, but he is a man of strong temperance principles as indicated by his membership in the Independent Order of Good Templars and he likewise belongs to the Court of Honor.

I'm sorry, I had not reconciled some of the recent information I've gotten...so I do in fact know from the death record (Iowa, Sac Co. death records, film # 1433315, page 222) that Fred's middle name is Owen. The 1880 census shows his name is Fredrick. In History of Carnarvon, Iowa, it says: "F.O. Walrod...farmed a few years, and then in 1890, he moved to Carnarvon (from Viola Twp.) to work in a blacksmith shop owned by his father-in-law, Chas. Harms. During the time he was blacksmithing he took a correspondence course in Veterinary Medicine and for many years served the community as a veterinary surgeon." and "The first (telephone) switchboard was in the F.O. Walrod home."

William J. Walrod, 80, Belmond (IOWA), died Saturday, July 12, 2003 at Mercy Medical Center in Mason City. Services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday at the United Methodist Church in Belmond with Pastor Mike Druhl officiating. The Belmond Honor Guard will provide military rites at the church following the funeral. The body will be cremated and a private interment will be held later at the Belmond Cemetery.

William (Junior) Walrod was born December 5, 1922 in Belmond, the son of William Owen and Jeanette Isabelle (Michelson) Walrod. He grew up in Belmond and graduated from Belmond High School in 1940.

Bill joined the Navy in 1942 and served with the 6th Seabee Construction Battalion as an electricians mate. He saw much combat in the South Pacific and was discharged in 1945. He was proud of his service and that five of his brothers were also veterans. Bill married (Doris) Jean Ryan of Rowan/Dows on January 15, 1947. The couple had three children.

Bill worked for Central Telephone as a lineman until 1953. Then he worked for Elliott Hardware as an appliance salesman and repairman. In 1963 he was appointed postmaster in Belmond and retired in 1985.

In retirement he enjoyed trips that he and Jean took, the most recent last May. They often traveled to visit their daughter, Veloice and her family. Bill went on many goose and pheasant hunting trips with son, Todd, brother, Dale, and nephew, Tim, and enjoyed spring turkey hunting in Northeast Iowa.

He was preceded in death by his parents; eight-year-old son, Ricky; brothers, Clayton, Charles, Gerald and Lawrence; and sisters, Helen Busick, Lois Hansen and June Hansen.

Survivors include his wife; daughter, Veloice (Peter) Huck of Eden Prairie, Minnesota; son, Todd (Ann) Walrod of Forest City; grandchildren, Megan, Emily and Kayla Huck and Trent and Jane Walrod; brothers, Douglas and Dale (Nadine) Walrod; and sisters-in-law, Anita and Dorothy Walrod.
